

High Temperature Multipurpose Masking Range

This information is given in good faith for guidance only and not for specification purposes. The user is responsible for determining the suitability of the product for their particular purpose such as type of substrate being applied to and other contaminants the tape may be exposed to. Tape should never be applied to freshly painted/uncured surfaces. If you require any further information please contact your Stylus Sales Representative.